The Future

It's now up to you. Bring to us your talents, resources and expertise. Fandom is what keeps the flames of your favorite shows alive.

The Relative Times

MTL members receive eight issues a year of sci-fi content, each with a color coded cover for each time of year.

Every issue contains the latest news and information about your favorite television shows and movies. Our writers find and condense it all down to a convenient digest format.

Club members contribute artwork, character profiles, short stories, convention reviews, cartoon, trivia, poetry and more.

Brief History

In the mid-1980's Doctor Who fandom was rising with the airing of the classic series on public television. Milwaukee area fans joined a University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee based student club, The Renegade Time Lords. By 1989 membership declined due to students leaving school, so a group of RTL members opted to form a club outside of the school. On August 26th, 1989 at the Bradford Arms on the east side of Milwaukee the founders created The Milwaukee Time Lords.
